

Meet Our Team

I was born in Fayetteville, TN, a small town an hour and a half south of Nashville. I have an amazing husband, 2 children and 3 grandchildren. They are my world! I started my Real Estate career with Dayla Bray who constantly encouraged me to become a realtor. I have always been fascinated with houses and property, so this seemed to fit with what I love. I've earned many awards over the years that reflect the integrity and hard work I give to my clients. I am a bold but compassionate agent. I have extensive knowledge of the market and an unmatched devotion to my clients. I have earned the respect of my clients by working tirelessly on their behalf and by always offering them candid advice. I am passionate about helping my clients through the home buying process, and I do my best to inform my clients about each detail every step of the way. Meeting and exceeding my client's expectations and needs motivates me to do my very best.

My name is Dayla Bray and I am a full time residential and commercial realtor and the founder/member of "The Preferred Group" I have over 15 years experience in assisting and guiding buyers and sellers in the real estate process. I take pride in my job and I truly do put my clients needs above everything else. Vickie Bean and myself have put together a team of talented dedicated agents to work for you and your family whatever your real estate needs may be. I am grateful for the relationships I have formed through this amazing business and take being Your Realtor For Life very serious. Call me today for all of your real estate needs.

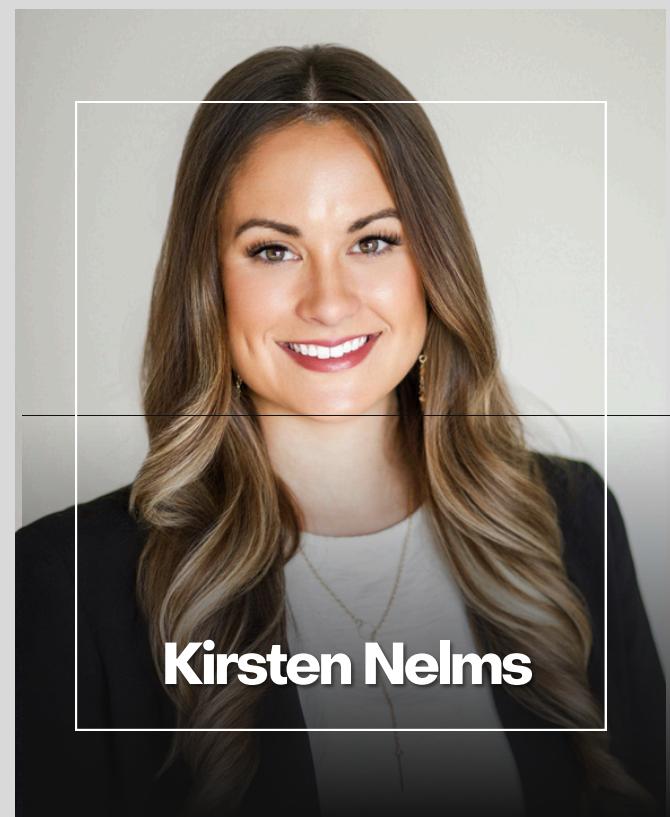

I am a real estate professional with "The Preferred Group" of Keller Williams Realty serving mostly all of the Middle Tennessee area. I have worked in the real estate industry for over six years, and love helping families find a place to call home. Working with all buyers and sellers is something I am very passionate about and take much pride in. I recognize and value the trust my clients place in me and I strive every day to exceed their expectations. Outside of real estate, I enjoy traveling to new places, spending time with my family and close friends. I am happily married and have one daughter. I appreciate nature and exploring outdoors, but also love a good movie night too! I would love the opportunity to show you that choosing the right realtor for you in this market can really make a difference. Give me a call today to discuss your future plans. I would love to make you my client for life!

Kirsten proudly serves buyers and sellers across Middle Tennessee as a member of The Preferred Group of Keller Williams. With a strong foundation in client advocacy and attention to detail, she guides her clients through each step of the real estate process with clarity, professionalism, and care.

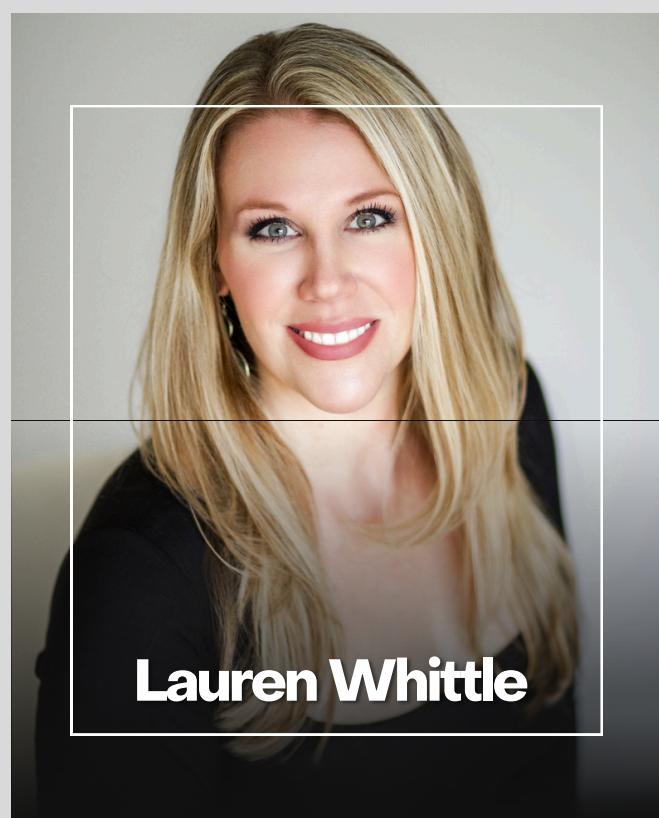

Before transitioning into real estate, Kirsten built a career in healthcare, where precision, communication, and steady leadership were essential. Those same qualities now shape her approach to negotiations, marketing strategy, and contract management.

Deeply rooted in her community, Kirsten actively supports local businesses, youth athletics, and civic initiatives. She believes real estate is more than transactions — it's about strengthening the community we call home.

Whether assisting first-time buyers, marketing land and lifestyle properties, or helping families make their next move, Kirsten is committed to delivering trusted guidance and meaningful results.

Kirsten Nelms

Lauren Whittle

With over six years of experience as a dedicated real estate agent, Lauren Whittle has built a reputation for integrity, persistence, and client-focused results. A proud, long-standing Middle Tennessee local, she has also lived in East Tennessee and East Nashville, with strong family roots in West Tennessee. This rich background gives her a well-rounded understanding of the diverse communities across the state while remaining deeply connected to her home in Middle Tennessee.

Beyond real estate, Lauren is a devoted wife of eight years and the proud mom of four. Her husband's name is Jake, and her children's names are Tristan, Colin, Lorelei, and Liam. Her passion for community shines through her volunteer work with the Animal Rescue Assistance Team of Tennessee, where she helps advocate for and protect vulnerable animals. She is also a long-standing member of the Marshall County Community Theatre, where her creativity and love for the arts bring people together.

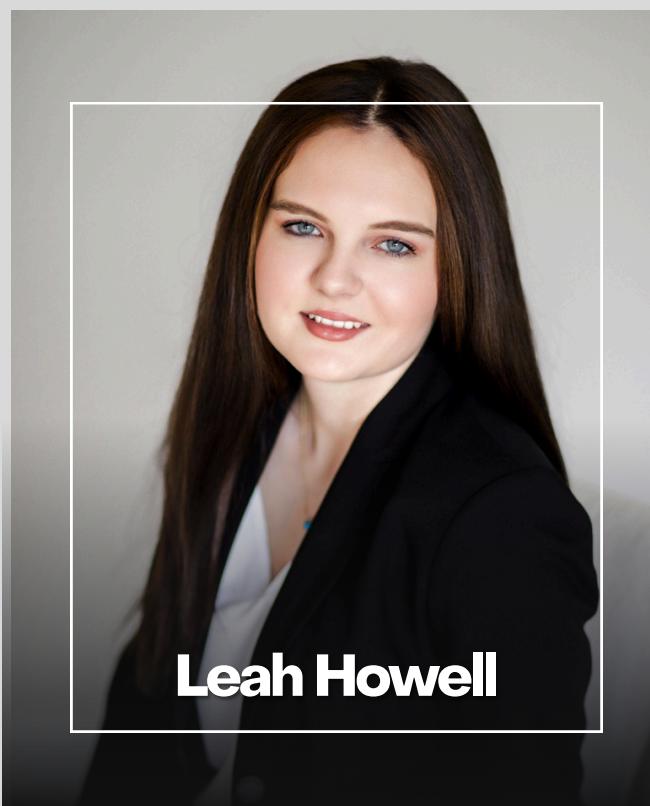

Blending her professional expertise with her dedication to family, service, and community, Lauren represents the heart of Tennessee living—compassionate, hardworking, and deeply connected to the people she serves.

My name is Carma Barksdale and I am a realtor with Keller Williams/The Preferred Group in Lewisburg, TN. My husband Tim and I moved to Tennessee in 1998 from Athens, AL and have two amazing children, and one beautiful granddaughter, who is our pride and joy!!

My journey into real estate is fueled by the excitement of discovering the perfect home for my clients and seeing their homeownership dreams come to life. With nearly two decades of experience in the mortgage field, I bring a comprehensive understanding of real estate finance that is a significant asset to every client I serve. This background allows me to provide not just guidance, but genuine expertise throughout your buying or selling process. I pride myself on being a dedicated, knowledgeable, hardworking agent who offers personalized service tailored to your unique situation.

Carma Barksdale

Leah Howell

I'm Leah Howell, a 22-year-old real estate agent born and raised in North Alabama. I love hiking and traveling — being outdoors and exploring new places keeps me energized and curious. I got into real estate to help people find their forever homes. Guiding clients through one of the most important decisions of their lives, making the process smooth and personal, and seeing their joy when they settle in is what I love most. If you value a friendly, local expert who cares about your goals, I'm here to help.