

You can buy natural health products online and in many cases at prices that are competitive with ours. However, there is something our store offers our dear customers that we feel is exceptional and unique in the saturated health industry market and that is our proprietor, Kolinda Duer. She is a certified health coach from the Institute of Integrative Nutrition and has been health coaching for almost a decade. She is at Healthy most days of the work week to listen, advise and to help. If you are confused by all of the ads and information that inevitably pops up when you ask Google "Which vitamin should I take?" come to Healthy for one on one consultations as you shop and learn what is best for YOUR BODY. We look forward to seeing you soon, "We are open September - May on Monday-Saturday. We are open June-August on Monday-Wednesday and Friday and Saturdays 10 till 6.
