Family owned since 1946. The restaurant was started by Bob and Cleo Crouse with locations in Leon, Knoxville, and Indianola. In 1963, it was sold to their son, Richard, and his wife, Bonnie Crouse. In 1970, R.M. Hale convinced Bonnie to move across the street to its present location. It was then left to their children John, Bob and Cindy in 1987. John and Rhonda now own and operate the restaurant alongside their son Josh in the kitchen and daughter Kristin, granddaughter Aleigha, and nieces Heidi and Abbie as waitresses.
