PRISCILLA PFAFF

I am a passionate and innovative professional with extensive experience in various facets of the title industry. I'm known for building exceptional customer relationships and have a strong desire to help clients navigate the title process with ease. I'm dedicated to sharing my knowledge and providing support, with a true love for teaching and mentoring others. Outside of work, I enjoy spending time with my beautiful nieces, and I have a deep appreciation for live music and time spent by the water.

DENISE TOMASINI

I am a dedicated professional with a passion for teaching and giving back to both referral partners and customers. With over 35 years of experience in the mortgage industry, I thrive on helping customers secure the best financing by carefully working through each file like a puzzle and ensuring they get the right solution. There's nothing more rewarding than seeing the smile on a customer's face when they receive their keys. I take pride in fostering lifetime relationships through personalized, meaningful conversations. Outside of work, I'm happily married with two children, and I'm an animal lover with five dogs and three cats—always rescuing and giving back to those in need. I enjoy walking, reading, and going to the movies in my free time.

DAVID BERENGER

I became an instructor to help Realtors gain a deeper understanding of mortgage loan products and the loan approval process. With a 25-year career in asset management before transitioning to a loan officer in 2020, I bring a wealth of knowledge and experience to every client interaction. I'm known for being knowledgeable, courteous, patient, and responsive—even outside of regular business hours. My goal is always to bring each deal to closing on the best possible terms, earning the trust of my clients. I'm married with three children, and one of my special interests is helping seniors better manage their housing wealth.
