

GUSTAVO H. SANTANA, J.D. M.B.A.

Gus started his firm in 1993 and has been at the Northlake location for over 20 years. This office on the edge of Cook and Du Page Counties and centrally located between all the courthouses in those counties. His goal with the firm has always been to provide excellent legal services to clients which will encourage referrals from existing clients. He has brought in loyal, hardworking people with solid values who also value a clients loyalty.

Gus' family emigrated from Cuba when the Castro regime made living there unsafe. He learned from his parents and family the virtues of doing your best and perseverance which he has carried forward to the firm.

Gus graduated from law school, earned an MBA and immediately opened his firm. He affiliated himself with more experienced attorneys and began taking the most difficult cases. His first jury trial was a murder case and his first civil trial was a case worth hundreds of thousands of dollars. He continues taking on the tough cases both civil and criminal today.

Gus remains involved in the legal community through bar associations and has served as President of the West Suburban Association. He is actively involved in furthering his legal knowledge through seminars and reading new cases daily, passing the information along to other attorneys in the firm.

LAWRENCE ANDOLINO

Larry Andolino is an experienced litigator in all civil matters and heads the civil division of this firm, overseeing all injury, domestic relations and civil cases.

Larry has conducted untold number of contested motions, bench and jury trials in all types of cases. He has developed a detailed communication system with our civil clients which allows our clients to remain on top of all details of our representation.

Larry represents different local governments and is the Chief Legal Officer and Prosecutor for the Village of Franklin Park. He has also served as an Executive Director of the Galewood-Montclare Community Organization where he assisted in bringing scholarships and free activities for children and seniors. He has served as a council member of the Sayre Language Academy Local School Council and he also serves as s a member of the Cook County Legal Assistance Foundation where he provides free legal and protection services for women subjected to Domestic abuse and trouble.

Thank you!

236 E North Ave Northlake, IL 60164

708-836-1111