

Tripp Harrison

Tripp Harrison, raised in South Florida, draws lifelong inspiration from tropical landscapes and discovered his passion for painting at nineteen. Known for his ability to capture the romance of nature, Tripp's work reflects exceptional observation, subtle light, and refined color, brought to life through a disciplined pursuit of excellence. You can view select pieces by Tripp at Mayport Village Outpost & Gallery.

Learn more about Tripp Harrison: https://tripharrison.com

Henry Von Genk III

Henry Von Genk III is a Jacksonville-born, self-taught painter celebrated for his luminous oil landscapes capturing Florida's untouched waterways and coastal marshes. With more than 30 years of experience, including early mural work for museums and international clients. He has become known for his realistic, Old-Master-inspired style found in private, corporate, and museum collections. You can view select pieces by Henry at Mayport Village Outpost & Gallery.

Learn more about Henry Von Genk III: https://www.henryvongenk.com

Paul Baliker

Paul Baliker is a renowned sculptor whose deep passion for nature drives his creation of immersive wood and bronze works that explore humanity's connection to the environment. Known for life-sized and monumental pieces displayed throughout Flagler County and beyond, Baliker's art blends craftsmanship, scale, and environmental storytelling. You can view select pieces by Paul at Mayport Village Outpost & Gallery.

Learn more about Paul Baliker: https://www.paulbaliker.com

Bryan Randa

Bryan Randa is a glass artist whose lifelong fascination with nature began in the fields of Iowa and evolved into a career shaped by both lampworking and large-scale glassblowing. After discovering the rich glassblowing tradition of Massachusetts, he trained intensively at McDermott Glass Studio before establishing his own studios, where he creates intricate ocean- and garden-inspired creatures as well as vibrant functional vessels and sculptures. You can view select pieces by Bryan at Mayport Village Outpost & Gallery.

Learn more about Bryan Randa: https://www.randaglass.com

Kathy Skaggs

Kathy Skaggs is a ceramic artist, educator, and consultant whose work with AMACO includes creating instructional content and leading workshops for studio potters and educational programs. Known for her expertise in ceramic techniques and her passion for teaching, Kathy continues to inspire makers at every level. You can view select pieces by Kathy at Mayport Village Outpost & Gallery.

Learn more about Kathy Skaggs: https://kathy-skaggs.com

Saul Freiden

Saul Freiden is a lifelong Jacksonville native and Atlantic Beach photographer whose work celebrates the wildlife, landscapes, and natural beauty of the First Coast. Inspired by his wife Deborah and driven by a deep appreciation for nature, Saul captures birds, botanicals, sunrises, and coastal scenes using a keen eye and a love for light. You can view select pieces by Saul at Mayport Village Outpost & Gallery.

Learn more about Saul Freiden: https://www.facebook.com/ImagesBySaulAndDeborah

Marie Carney

Marie Lyon Carney bio: Artist, curator, and coastal creative, Mary Lyon Carney owns the Mayport Village Outpost Village and Gallery. With roots as an artist and art consultant in Atlantic Beach, she blends local culture, community connection, and artistic vision into everything she does. When she's not building creative spaces, she's out fishing or scuba diving—always exploring, always inspired.

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/marie.l.carney.7/>