

This Privacy Policy explains how information may be collected, used, and shared through this website and related appointment scheduling and customer communication services.

Information We Collect

Information provided through this website or in connection with a service request may include contact details, appointment information, and the contents of messages or inquiries. Basic technical information, such as browser type and website usage data, may also be collected when visitors use the site.

How Information Is Used

Information may be used to respond to inquiries, provide services, manage appointments, send confirmations and reminders, communicate scheduling changes, maintain website security, and meet applicable legal obligations.

Appointment Reminders and SMS Communications

When a mobile number is provided and appropriate consent is obtained, appointment confirmations, reminders, and other service-related text messages may be sent. Message frequency varies. Message and data rates may apply. Reply STOP to opt out of text messages and HELP for assistance.

Mobile phone numbers and SMS consent information are not sold or shared with third parties or affiliates for their own marketing or promotional purposes. Information may be shared with service providers that deliver messages on behalf of the business.

Email and Telephone Communications

Contact information may be used for service-related emails and calls, including appointment updates. Automated or prerecorded calls and promotional communications will be used only where permitted by law and with any required consent.

Information Sharing

Information may be shared with service providers that support website hosting, appointment scheduling, messaging, payment processing, or business operations, and when disclosure is required by law. Personal information is not sold as part of ordinary appointment reminder operations.

Cookies and Website Technology

The website may use cookies or similar technologies to support site functionality and understand general usage. Browser settings may allow visitors to limit cookies, although some features may not function as intended.

Data Security and Retention

Reasonable measures are used to protect personal information. No internet transmission or storage system can be guaranteed completely secure. Information is retained as needed for business operations, services, and legal obligations.

Privacy Choices

Visitors may request information about their personal data or ask for corrections or deletion, subject to applicable laws and recordkeeping requirements. Requests can be submitted through the contact methods provided on this website. Additional rights may apply depending on location.

Third-Party Links

This website may link to external websites with separate privacy practices. Those websites are responsible for their own policies.

Changes to This Policy

This Privacy Policy may be updated from time to time. The current version will be posted on this website.
