HISTORY OF THE HITCHING POST

The History of the Hitching Post goes way back to the late 1800's. In the early 1900's, there were puppet shows in the dance hall and a complete dinner for twenty-five cents. The dances started early in the evening and lasted till daybreak. People came in a wagon drawn by horses from West Bend. Every man escorted a lady to supper at midnight. As you can tell our pioneers had entertainment too, and life was not dull. Then in the 1960's they dug out the basement with shovels and picks by hand to put in a bar downstairs. They made the upstairs bar a minor bar and the downstairs bar for people of age. There were several proprietors of the Saloon and Dance Hall. Lewis Kohl, Franz Hahn, Julius Bartelt, William Pfeifer, Thomas Pfeifer, Reinhard Muller, The Renks, Walter Endlich, Otto Griepentrog, Lillian Moritz, F. Gutjahr, Alfred Dobrinz, Helen Pavik, Gust Boettcher, Harold Boettcher, Carl Hohlweck, Gerald Rosenthal, Danny Coulter, Ronald Ruplinger, Edward Mayer, Nick and Dolly Vogt. Jason Jug renovated the building in 2005.
